Happy Halloween

October Luncheon
Thursday, October 8, 2009

www.scawc.org

Learn all about "The Mob" when Ellen Knowlton from the "Las Vegas Museum of Organized Crime & Law Enforcement" presents an exciting program. Ellen Knowlton, who retired in 2006 as FBI agent in charge in Las Vegas and now heads the not-for-profit museum organization, said FBI officials have offered to share photographs, transcripts of wiretaps and histories of efforts to kneecap organized crime in the 1950s, '60s and '70s.

"Despite the sort of edgy theme, this museum will be historically accurate and it will tell the true story of organized crime," Knowlton said. "The plan is to give people a kind of gritty taste of what it would have been like to be not only a person involved or affiliated with organized crime, but also what it would have been like to be in law enforcement."

Frank "Lefty" Rosenthal before the Senate Investigators Subcommittee, Sept. 8, 1961 during a probe of organized gambling.

Luncheon will be held in the Anthem Center ballroom with Chef Tirzo catering.

Lunch includes: Butternut Squash Soup, Baked Filet of Cod Fish with Biscayne Sauce, Rice Pilaf, and Steamed Broccoli Florets. Pumpkin Pie for dessert, with a dollop of whipped cream. Rolls and Butter and Beverage Service also included.

New Addition: There will now be a cash bar available in the room!!

Members $25, non-members $30. Table reservations (up to 8 people per table) must be received in the same envelope at the same time.
